Family Fun Camps
All Ages Welcome

Family Fun Camps are an overnight weekend camping adventure for the entire family at Howard H. Cherry Scout Reservation. Family Camp provides an opportunity for families to spend time enjoying nature in a fun, beautiful outdoor setting away from the everyday distractions that come with a busy family. This is a 1 to 2 night camp for Scouts, their family (including siblings), and friends.

New in 2020: Customize your camp experience to fit your families’ schedule!

Staffed activities include swimming, bouldering/climbing wall, shooting sports, games, fishing, crafts, and a campfire program. Activity stations provide optional structured programs while leaving enough free time to enjoy the great outdoors with family. This is a great introduction to camping for those new to our programs.

Cub Adventure Camps
Cub Scouts going into 2nd-5th grades

Cub Adventure Camp is an action-packed 3 day/2 night camp experience. Scouts are invited to come with a parent, friends or as a den. The activities are specific to each grade level, and are designed to not only ensure that everyone has fun, but also to give each Scout who attends a jump start on their progress toward their next Cub Scout rank. Scouts will be instructed in a variety of activities and advancements throughout their entire stay at camp.

Scouts are grouped in dens and will rotate through pre-set grade appropriate activity blocks. Fun activities include: shooting sports, climbing, swimming, crafts, advancement opportunities, interfaith chapel service, and organized campfire with camper participation.
