NOTES:

1. Table 3-1 and this table together make up the duty responsibilities for adults.
2. The color of an adult's callout bead is white if the Ordeal was taken as a youth and black if taken as an adult.
3. The basic Indian style OA Regalia is defined in section 5.2.5 of the Lodge Membership Guide.
4. The sash will be either a Brotherhood or Vigil sash depending on membership level.
5. Counseling Brotherhood candidates consists of helping candidates with their Brotherhood requirements at Chapter Meetings and at least one Conclave or Fellowship.
6. Counseling Ordeal candidates consists of leading an Ordeal counseling session at a Conclave using the guidelines provided. This includes explaining the Ordeal up to the time of the Counseling session.
7. All requirements for any given Duty, except this one, must be completed within the twelve months prior to applying for that Duty Promotion.
8. If there is a strong conflict, contact, in order, the Lodge Adviser, the Lodge Chief, or the Lodge Professional Adviser for a substitute responsibility.
9. Requirement 13 for the Red Duty is waived for those members who achieve Red Duty outside the Indian Lore path.
